

What about other Delaware County municipalities?

Some larger townships in Delaware County, like Haverford and Springfield, do not use the EIT, but Upper Darby differs from its neighbors in fundamental ways. To serve its population, Upper Darby Township employs 134 full-time police officers and has a combination fire department with 55 full-time career firefighters. Except for Chester, other Delaware County municipalities have fewer police officers and volunteer fire departments.

Township	Pop.	EIT	Real Estate Tax (Mills)	Police Officers	Fire department
Aston	16,791	1.00%	3.674	20 FT, 7 PT	Volunteer
Darby Boro	10,715	1.00%	15.650	17 FT, 10 PT	Volunteer
Darby Twp	9,219	0.00%	9.900	15 FT, 3 PT	Volunteer
Haverford	50,431	0.00%	4.395	71 FT	Volunteer
Lansdowne Boro	11,107	1.00%	7.304	15 FT	Volunteer
Lower Chichester	3,425	1.00%	7.250	5 FT, 8 PT	Volunteer
Marple	24,214	0.00%	2.253	32 FT	Volunteer
Nether Providence	14,525	0.00%	3.460	16 FT	Volunteer
Radnor	33,228	0.00%	2.437	49 FT	Volunteer
Ridley	31,053	0.00%	5.463	30 FT	Volunteer
Springfield	25,070	0.00%	3.920	34 FT	Volunteer
Tinicum	3,983	1.00%	3.000	15 FT	Volunteer
Upper Chichester	16,898	1.00%	3.035	23 FT, 3 PT	Volunteer
Yeadon Boro	12,054	1.00%	8.832	16 FT, 1 PT	Volunteer
Upper Darby	85,681	0.00%	11.234	134 FT	Combination