Parent Agreement:

Summer Stage is an award winning youth theater program that produces high quality shows for the community. Summer Stage is an inclusive theater program where everyone should feel safe to be themselves. Doing theater is a collaborative activity that demands a positive attitude from all participants. Your child will be expected to attend daily rehearsals, to learn songs and dances, and possibly lines from a script. Daily attendance will be mandatory during the dates of the program that you have signed up for. Please avoid scheduling any other camps or vacations during that time frame. If your child is not able to follow the expectations of Summer Stage participation, the scholarship will be forfeited.

I agree that my child will attend Summer Stage classes, rehearsals and performances regularly and will comply with the rules and regulation of the program. I certify that the above information is accurate.
